

A Bee-Day Party at Dufferin Grove Park

Saturday, May 28, 2 p.m. - 6 p.m. Free

2 p.m. - 6 pm. free! An informal afternoon of DIY bee condo making, pollinator art and booklet launch, and pizza!

Find us by the Pizza Oven, near the Rink House/Community Center in the Park.

- How to Make a Pollinator Garden - booklet by Clement Kent
- Odes to Solitary Bees video-poems (Stephen Humphrey and Sarah Peebles)
- Audio

Bee Booth installation (Sarah Peebles): Wild Toronto bees and wasps make nests!

- MACRO VIDEO, MICRO AUDIO AND POETRY
- Bee Condos: Join local artists to make your own bee 'condo' for solitary nesting bees in your yard or garden. We'll create intriguing bee domiciles from found objects, drilled (non-treated) wood, milk cartons, beads, non-toxic glues and more. Suitable for kids and adults.

- Planting of Pollinator Garden in the park - kids only, please!
- Bring your own items to add to ours for your condo - look at the web link below and bring your own ideas...
- For easy DIY bee house info, biology basics and safety visit: Solitary Dream Homes \(for bees!\) and web gallery
- Improvised music unplugged, by members of AIMToronto
- Poetry readings
- Members of the Packer Wild Bee Lab (York University) drop in for a visit
- Bee activist Sabrina Malach gets us ready for The Pollinators Festival in June
- Surprise guests!
- Did we say PIZZA? Dufferin Grove Park Pizza Day! Fresh and delicious (3p.m. - 5 p.m.)
