Teacher: Christina Serra is a licenced Kindermusik teacher and professional actor. She has enjoyed teaching Kindermusik all over Toronto for the past 5 years. In 2004 she created Disco Ducks, a class for caregivers and tots, held under a disco ball and set to the theme of disco music. Christina also teaches drama classes at the Lorainne Kimsa Theatre for Young People. Among her acting credits, she is most proud to have independently produced her first original play for young people, Bee and Touli's Jungle Adventure. Christina loves to provide classes for children, and introduce them to a variety of fun music and movement. She also loves to play along with them!
