

Hydraulophone: Improvisations over Water

Earth, Water, Air, and "Fire" ... fluidly continuous sound...
Come celebrate Earth Day!

Ryan Janzen, hydraulophone
John Kameel Farah, piano

The hydraulophone will be also demonstrated by its inventor, Steve Mann, followed by a performance in the Five Classical Elements (states of matter):

1. Earth (Solid) – piano
2. Water (Liquid) – hydraulophone
3. Air (Gas) – pipe organ
4. "Fire" (Plasma) – plasmaphone (another instrument invented by S. Mann)
5. Idea (Informatics) – brainwave quintephone, performed by Ariel Garten

States of "H<sub>2</sub>Orchestra"

Pagophone
Solid H<sub>2</sub>O (Ice)

Hydraulophone
Liquid H<sub>2</sub>O (Water)

Idratmosphone
Gas H<sub>2</sub>O (Steam)

Plasmaphone
Plasma "H<sub>2</sub>O" ("Lightning")

8 p.m., April 22, 2008 — Free admission

The Music Gallery — 197 John St.

For more information see: <http://wearcam.org/earthday>